

P.A.V. HOCKEY SUMMER CAMP

Conditions Upon Registration

1. Exclusion in Case of Misconduct

The camp organizers reserve the right to exclude participants who behave in an offensive, harmful, or endangering manner towards others. If a participant is caught with alcohol or nicotine (especially older participants), this will also lead to immediate exclusion. In both cases, there is no entitlement to a refund of the paid amount.

2. Liability Disclaimer and Insurance

We strive to ensure the highest level of safety for the children. However, injuries or illnesses cannot be completely ruled out. The organizers accept no liability in such cases. Each participant must have valid accident insurance that covers any medical treatment during the camp.

3. Use of Photo and Video Material

I authorize the organizers to use photo and video material of my child, taken during training, for future promotional purposes.

4. Payment Terms

After submitting the registration, you have 10 days to make the deposit to the account listed below. A spot will be reserved for your child during this period. If payment is not made within this time, the reservation will expire.

5. Cancellation

Cancellation of the registration is possible up to 4 weeks before the start of the camp to receive a full refund of the paid amount. After this deadline, no refund will be provided. Cancellations can be made by phone or email at pavhockey@gmail.com.

6. Terms and Conditions

I have read and accept all the terms and conditions of this contract.

7. Liability for Deliberate Damage

The organizers are not liable for deliberate damages to the ice rink or accommodation. These must be covered by the parents.
